"Did you hear the one about the . . ."

SENIORS

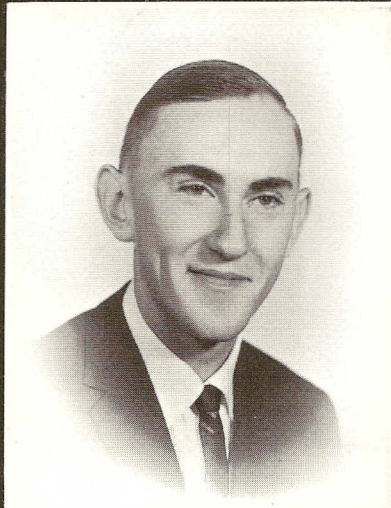

ROGER ANDERSON
"Who cares about women; where did you say they went?"

JANICE BRENKE
Small in stature but mighty in spirit.

DARRELL BIEDER
"Give me life, liberty, and a car to pursue my happiness."

ALVIN BUSCH
"Deeds, not words, shall speak me."

MARY LOU BUSCH
Full of fun and mischief too; doing what she shouldn't do.

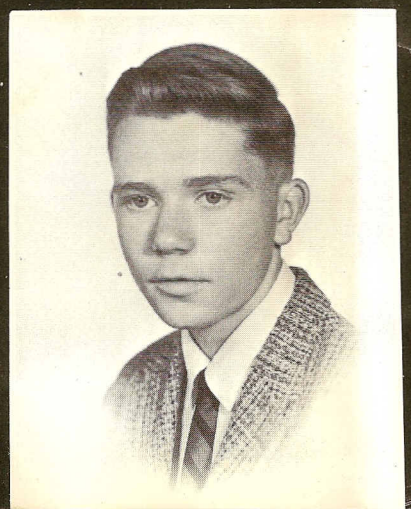

MARY ELLEN DIVINE
"There are two sides to every story - the wrong side and my side."

DALE CASTOR
He has three speeds; slow, slower, and stop.

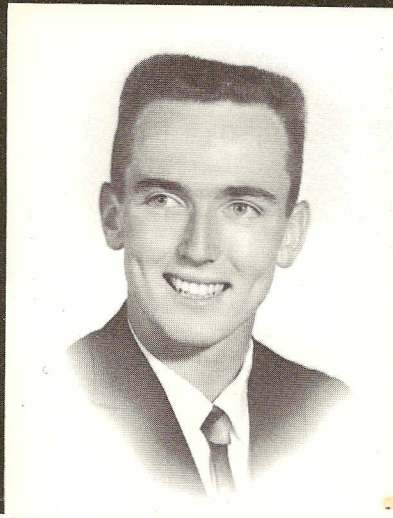

JAMES DIERS
A pal to many; a friend to all.

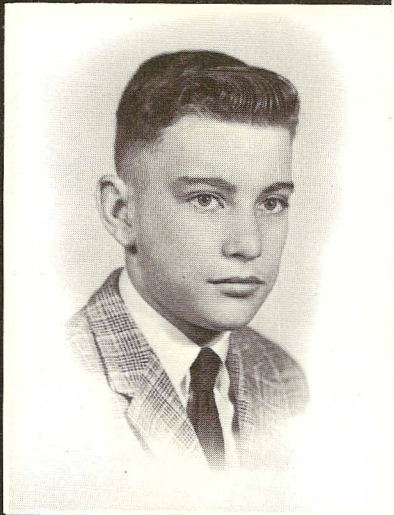

PATSY DOHENY
Her sparkling eyes and lively looks are seldom found in lesson books.

GREGORY FOGARTY
"When beauty and duty clash, let duty go to hash."

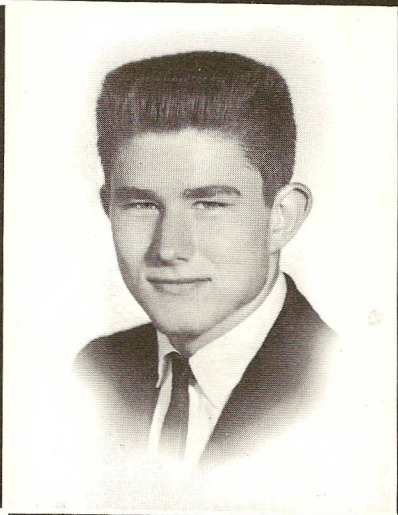

JANICE FARRELL
"Happy go lucky-fair and free; not many things can bother me."

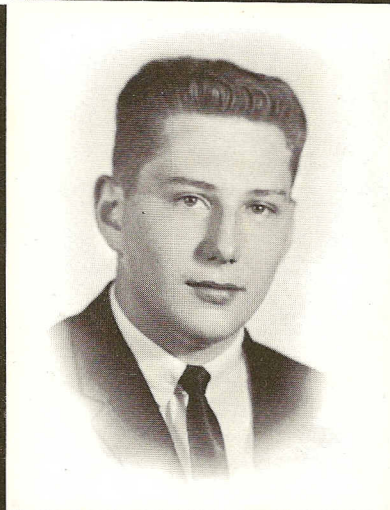

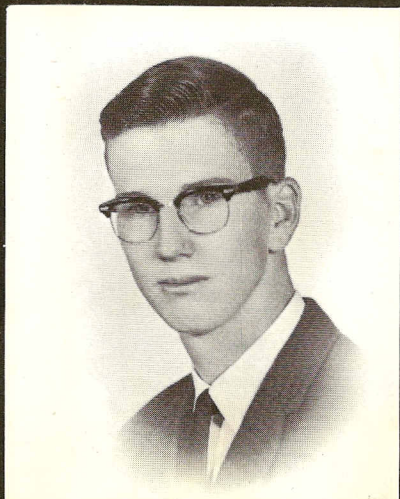

WAYNE GALES
"Manhood isn't measured in inches--thank goodness."

ARTHUR HAHN
In both sports and good looks he's a cinch to excel. How many girls has he under his spell?

MICHEAL HESSIAN
"In my desk books do lie; they are at rest and so am I."

ALICE JEAN HOELZ
Always active, always bright, wide awake on any night.

JAMES HARSH
"I answered promptly; I said I didn't know."

JUDIE HOELZ
Her personality bubbles like a cherry coke.

LARRY KAHLE
"Who's the best guy here, and why am I?"

SANDRA JOHNSON
The sparkle on her hand reflects in her eye.

MARLAINE KRUMREY
"I laughed 'til I cried."

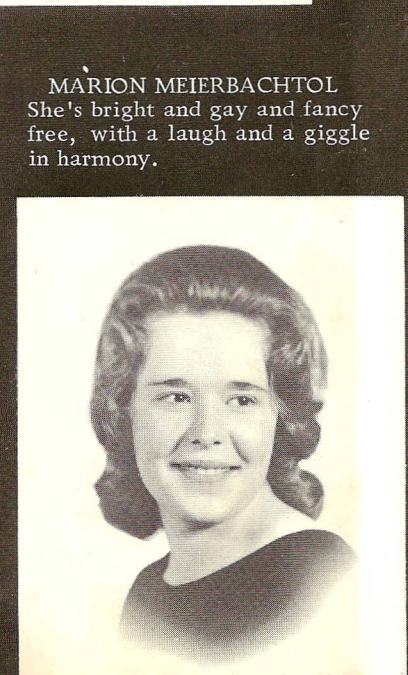

JOHN MAHONEY
"Don't study your lesson; lessen your study."

BILL MCCUE
"I can't learn anything while I'm talking."

GARY MCCUE
"When I'm not near the girl I love, I love the girl I'm near."

MARION MEIERBACHTOL
She's bright and gay and fancy
free, with a laugh and a giggle in harmony.

TIMOTHY MELCHIOR
"I don't know why, but the girls always chase me."

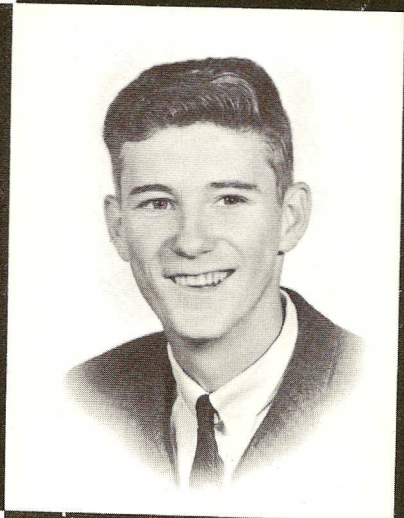

MARY ELLEN MURPHY
She's like a magnet--attractive.

DONALD MORRISON
Farmers--the backbone of the nation.

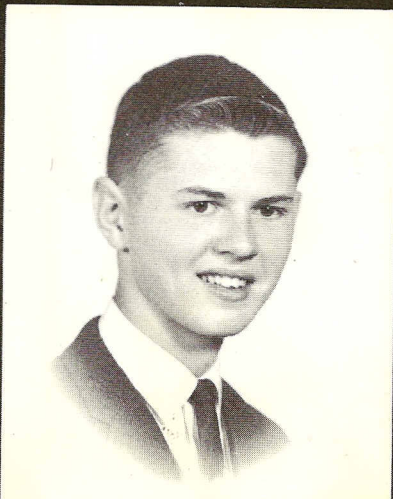

LAVONNE NOLL
A Juliet who has a Romeo.

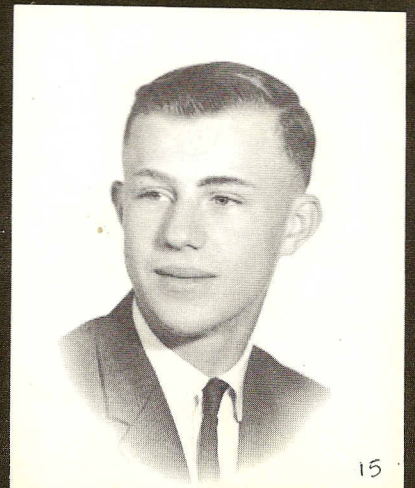

ROBERT O'CONNOR
"45 cards in the class, and I'm the joker."

GARY PELTZ
"Don't crowd around girls; you'll all get a chance."

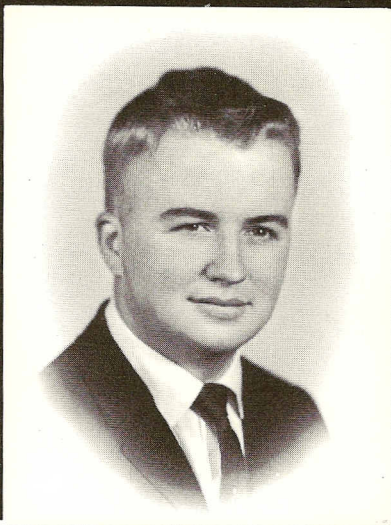

SHIRLEY OELFKE
"Aha! Me thinks I sniff excitement in the air."

GARY SCHMIDT
A real smooth dresser, a gleam in his eyes; it's not hard to tell where his interest lies.

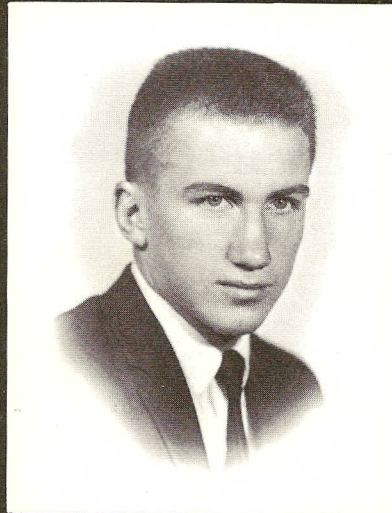

GLENNA SCHULTZ
 Bubbling, vivacious, it's plain to see that everyone loves and admires our queen.

JOHN SPELLACY
 He's not of serious mind; but lots of fun and always kind.

LAVONNE SCHULTZ
 A carefree girl is she; drawing is her speciality.

PAUL STIER
 "I dur'st not smile upon the damsels; 'twould break too many hearts."

JEANETTE SULLIVAN
 "Only weeds grow tall."

JUDITH TRIMBO
 "Don't take life too seriously;
 you can't get out of it alive anyway."

BEVERLY THOMASON
 A swell gal, a friend of all,
 willing to help whenever you call.

MANLEY VINKEMEIER
 "Round the corner lickety split, nice car wasn't it?"

JUDITH VOSS
"Oh, I like the older fellows best."

DONALD WACKER
"Well boys, it's done like this."

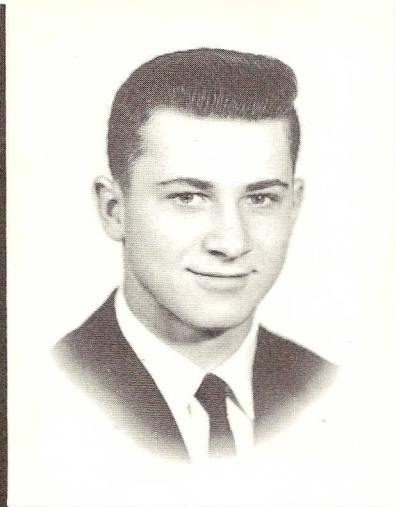

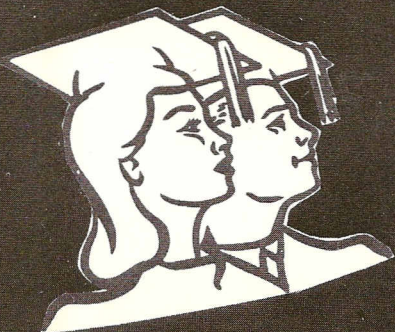

PAUL WILLSON
"I do believe it will take all year to convince the teachers
I'm right."

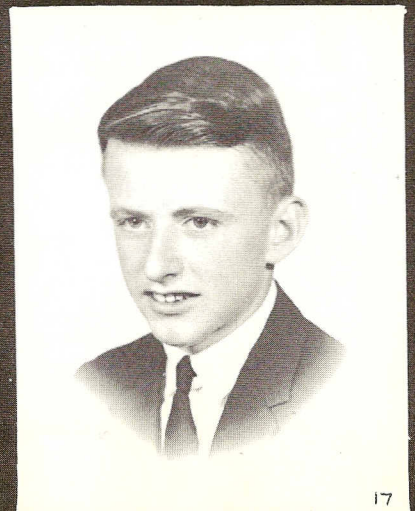

JIM WITT
"I came, I bluffed, I graduated."

DICK ZAUN
"Work has killed many men.
Why die?"

WAYNE WOLTER
He doesn't let his studies interfere with his high school education.

GARY ANDERSON

We, the senior class of 1963, dedicate this page to Gary Anderson. Gary died suddenly during his senior year.

As the day of graduation approaches, in spite of all our last minute plans for the last big moment in our high school days, we cannot forget his lasting smile and his winning personality.

We are proud that he was a member of our class.
