HOMECOMING 1962

QUEEN CANDIDATES
Judi, Mary, and Glenna

HOMECOMING

The 1962 Homecoming Festivities commenced on Thursday, October 4, with the lighting of the bonfire by Art Hahn, Senior Class President. Following the pep talks given by Supt. Lindquist, Prin. Clappier, and guest speaker, Jim Daly, the three queen candidates were introduced.

On Friday afternoon, Glenna Schultz, was crowned Homecoming Queen by last years' queen, Jan Kechley, with Judie Hoelz and Mary Ellen Murphy as her Princesses.

The parade after the coronation was highlighted by the announcement of the winning float. The juniors, with their theme of "Time for a Victory", were announced the winners.

An exciting and challenging game was played against Montgomery, with Montgomery winning by a score of 35 to 26.

The dance following the game was attended largely by alumni, students, and the faculty. The gym was attractively decorated, and the music for the occasion was provided by the David Theissen Band.

ONE ACT PLAY

"Paris Blue" was the theme of the 1963 Prom which was held on April 27. The evening started with the traditional banquet. After the banquet, Mr. Lindquist gave a talk on "Gay Paree" and Mr. Clappier gave a talk on "The Magnificent Eifel." Following the talks, the reading of the Last Will and Testament was read by Art Hahn and the reading of the Prophecy by Dennis Goehring, junior class president. After the prophecy the juniors and seniors went to the gym and the Grand March began. The gym was decorated in blue and silver with a Eifel Tower standing in the middle of the floor. Lee James and his orchestra provided music for the dance until midnight.

The junior decorating committee rushing to finish before the prom.
