CLASS WILL

To Mr. Lindquist we, the senior class, leave the memory of the best class Belle Plaine ever had.

To Mr. Clappier we leave some new traditions to replace the old ones.

To Mrs. Albrecht we leave a pair of padded glasses.

To Mr. Albrecht we leave the hopes that you will have another energetic 7th hour class, and one as honest as your 1st hour class.

To Mr. Bush we leave all the football games we almost won.

To Mr. Delegenhausen we leave our ability to learn lines.

To Mr. Harms we leave our successful and orderly corn drive and barrow show.

To Mrs. Merta we leave our unfinished shorthand lessons and all our borrowed typing paper.

To Mr. Heitkamp we leave a jar of vaseline. Now nobody can use the excuse, "The slide rule wouldn't work!"

To Mr. Liese we leave all our industrious work hours and great accomplishments.

To Mr. Miller we leave the thought of the greatest group of athletes you ever coached.

To Mr. Ott we leave our torn down bulletin boards and trips to the office.

To Mr. Otto we leave all our term papers!! P.S. You deserve them.

To Miss Kotchevar we leave the memory of our wonderful cooperation.

To Mr. Richard we leave all our mouth pieces that we wore out practicing.

To Mr. Montbriand we leave a classroom of future St. John students. May they behave as well as you did.

I, Dale Castor, will my boundless energy to Linda Buesgens. You'll need it!

I, Patsy Doheny, will my ability from two years of shorthand to Marilyn Scully.

I, John Spellacy, will my ability to dance the Bossa Nova to Carol Quaas.

I, Tim Melchior, will my car keys to Janice Otto--you've got everything else.

I, Mary Murphy, will my ability to get away with it to Nella Schuette. Good luck!

I, Manley Vinkemeier, will my ability to drive to Paul Schmidt. Keep'em rolling!

I, Bob O'Connor, will my ability to keep my big mouth shut to Mary Berger.

I, Judy Trimbo, will my ability to keep things moving smoothly to Mary Lou Scully. I know you'll need it.

I, Gary Peltz, will my love for hunting to Richard Hart. Remember Rich, there's open season too!!

I, LaVonne Noll, will my ability to change my name to Colleen Morrison. Don't rush though.

I, Marlaine Krumrey, will my love for the green giant to Judy Sweeney.

I, Bill McCue, will to you Dennis Goehring something short and sweet. Good luck, Dennis.

I, LaVonne Schultz, will my ability to giggle quietly to Patty Anderson and Lela Ediger. Please, no more odd sounds!

I, Roger Anderson, will my ability to pack butter to Gary Snyder.

We, Mary Busch and Mary Devine, will our acting ability to Marsha Dalaska, Pam Nitz, and Joan McCue. We hope you confine it to the stage as we always did.

I, Greg Fogarty, will my ability to get an undisturbed sleep in class to Jim Mahoney.

I, Janice Farrell, will my Irish nationality to Kathy Liebhard. Cheer up, it could be worse.

I, Wayne Wolters, will my free spending ways to Denny O'Connor. May he never be broke.

We, Don Morrison and Paul Stier, will our love for sophomore girls to Bill Schultz.
 Have fun, Bill.

I, Wayne Galles, will my everlasting bus rides on No. 9 to Charles Fogarty.

I, Gary McCue, leave my ability to get along with the opposite sex to anyone who dares.

We, Shirley Oelfke and Jim Witt, will our appreciation for the finer things in life to Joan Zellmer and company.

We, Cookie Hoelz and Janice Brenke, will our love for towns to Darlene Erickson, JoAnn Hadac, JoAnn Devine, and NOW Marilyn Fahey.

I, Jim Harsh, will my strenuous training schedule to Rich Martin. I hope you can stand the strain.

I, Judie Hoelz, will my late weekends to Berney Glynn.

I, Jeanette Sullivan, will my love for the '62 graduates to Jean Hesperheide. It's known to work.

We, Jim Diers and Mike Hessian, will our good times to Francis Buesgens, Mike Haag, and Tom Meierbachtol.

I, Larry Kahle, will all my charms and good looks to the entire junior class. There should be plenty to go around.

I, Beverly Thomason, will to Judy Huber my love for convertibles and what goes with them.

I, Dick Zaun, will my ability to stay home nights to Wayne Weldon. Keep trying!

I, Paul Willson, will my studious ability to Dale Wolpern, I know you'll take it as well as I have.

I, Judith Voss, will all my old boy friends to Mary Ellen Chaves. I hope you have as much fun as I had.

I, Alvin Busch, leave my big black dog to the school. Now everyone can rest easy.

I, Darrell Bieder, will my love and luck with cars to Jim Martin, Bob Nybloom, and Jim Madden. Keep'em shining!

I, Butch Hahn, leave my philosophy of life to Darrell Buszman and Carolyn Mueller.

I, Sandy Johnson, will to SHERAL Fogarty the liking of "little" men.

I, Gary Schmidt will my ability to run "Motels" to Susie Hahn. Business is good!

I, Marion Meierbachtol, will my love for the alumni to LaJune Stender and Karen Tritz.

I, Glenna Schultz, leave my silent ways to Carmen Schilz, Lois Zabel, Judy Kahle, and Margret Collins.

I, John Mahoney, will my younger brother to Liz Novak. Don't get excited Liz, I mean Tom!

I, Don Wacker, will my ability to get along with blondes to all the junior boys.

We, the senior lettermen, will lots of luck to the underclassmen, without us you'll need it!

We, the senior girls, will our ability to get diamonds to the junior girls. Good luck!!

To all the teachers which we have never had, we leave the heartbreak of never having taught the class of 1963.

We, the seniors of 1963, will our ability to make money to the future junior classes!! May their treasury grow as large as ours!!

PROPHECY

Roger Anderson is now part owner of the Tiger Drive-Inn, specializing in Patti-burgers.

Darrell Bieder and Alvin Busch have come to be known as great drivers at the Savage Speedway.

Jan Brenke has received a patent for her new invention, a kraut-cremer.

Mary Busch and Mary Devine are dance instructors at the Arthur Murray Studios, specializing in twist and limbo numbers.

Dale Castor is now a featured bowler on Bowlerama.

Jim Diers is the proprietor of a record shop. The only problem is that "Jamey" is the only record they keep in stock.

Pat Doheny is now queen of a small European principality. Her favorite saying is "Oh-kneel."

Jan Farrell is now a geometry teacher at a local high school. She refuses to instruct her pupils about anything besides "Kubes", however.

Greg Fogarty and Wayne Wolters are now in the process of making their first million as a result of their new motion picture, "Returning to the Days of Wine and Roses."

Wayne Gallas is the starring actor on the T.V. program, "The Tall Man."

Arthur Hahn is a famous saxophone player in a prominent band. His favorite song seems to be "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean."

Jim Harsh has taken over the ownership of the Texaco Station. As a result of all his "Effertz", the business is doing quite well.

Mike Hessian is a truck driver for the "Murphy" truck lines.

Alice Jean Hoelz finds her job as maid at the Beverly Hilton Hotel much easier with the aid of Les - toil.

Judie Hoelz, we are sad to say, suffered a broken ankle the other day while "rab"-bit hunting.

Sandy Johnson is a famous diamond cutter, specializing in "Little" ones.

Larry Kahle has taken over Jack LaLaynes job on the latter's famous T.V. exercise program. His only problem seems to be competitor from another network brought about by a red-headed exercise queen.

Marlaine Krumrey is a guide at the "Walker" Art Institute.

John Mahoney and LaVonne Schultz spend most of their time at amusement parks. Their favorite ride seems to be the "ferris" wheel.

Dick Zaun has opened up a taxi service - to Jordan and back, only.

PROPHECY

Gary McCue has opened up a parking lot on South Cedar Street and states that business is good.

Bill McCue is a famous research chemist and in his spare time instructs high school students.

Marion Meierbachtol has just won an academy award for her performance in "Frankenstein Returns."

Tim Melchior has invented a new machine. Now he can be sure of having an Otto-matic card partner at all times.

Don Morrison is an employer at the Johnson Implement Company.

Mary Ellen Murphy still walks around with a halo about her head. She claims Michael, the archangel, put it there.

LaVonne Noll is a famous physician. She has just discovered a new disease; it will be known as "Rickaby."

Bob O'Conner is the owner of the Carlson Hotel chain. He states business is doing well.

Shirley Oelfke has concocted a new brew known as "wittsky."

Gary Peltz is part owner of a used-car lot. Now he can be sure of having a car at all times.

Gary Schmidt is the local game warden. His pet peeve: people who are "schuetting" game out of season.

Glenna Schultz has taken over a famous T.V. program. It is called "Sing Along With Queenie."

John Spellacy is the local drive-inn pest. He's always stealing "mugs."

Paul Stier is an apprentice at Hayes Mortuary.

Jeanette Sullivan and Judith Voss are employed in a drug store; Anderson's and Snyder's, respectively.

Bev Thomason is an astronomer located at Mt. Polomar, studying "rays" of light.

Judy Trimbo is employed by the Herald Office, and is known as "Miss News."

Manley Vinkemeier is a famous New York hair stylist. He states his favorite as being red hair.

Don Wacker is a school teacher and is constantly telling his students not to "Mar" or "laine" on the desks.

Paul Willson is now a metalurgist and has developed a new method of "Weldon."

James Witt has just moved in above Matt's Variety. He claims, "It 'surely' comes in handy this way."

An abstract graphic design featuring several overlapping geometric shapes. A large, dark, solid triangle points downwards from the top center. A lighter, textured triangle overlaps it from the top right, pointing towards the top left. A thin, dark curved line starts from the bottom left, loops around the right side, and ends near the bottom right. The word "ADVERTISING" is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font at the bottom center.
